on the rise!

As we look to the future we become aware of the everchanging values of our society. We look back on the past four years with fondness and we look ahead with a certain amount of uncertainty and speculation.

Our years at North High have been as successful as we students have chosen to make them. We cannot change the past; however, we can make the most of the future. ♪

NAHS has many faces because its student body is diverse. Many of us have realized our talents during our high school years and we have expressed them in various ways.

We are grateful for those who have enriched our years here by excelling in academics, in athletics, in dramatics, in music, in art, in service to others, in teaching, in the computer lab, in leadership roles, etc.

We leave here satisfied yet hungry. We are full of dreams and ambitions. ♡

IN REMEMBRANCE OF A DEVOTED TEACHER -
MRS. CARR

I WOULD LIKE TO SAY HOW SHE TOUCHED
EVERYONE'S LIVES - ESPECIALLY MINE. SHE HELPED ME REACH MY GOAL - THIS DAY -
GRADUATION!

AS I WROTE TO HER IN A LETTER: "SOMETIMES
IT TAKES SOMETHING BAD TO HAPPEN TO A PERSON TO REALIZE HOW MUCH YOU REALLY CARE."

IN RESPONSE SHE WROTE TO ME: "SOMETIMES
SAD EXPERIENCES MAKE US STRONGER PEOPLE; DON'T QUESTION GOD'S WILL; I KNOW GOD IS WITH ME AND THE LOVE OF MANY PEOPLE."

GOD BLESS YOU MY FRIEND - MRS. CARR -
WE WON'T SAY GOODBYE, ONLY 'TIL WE MEET

Bev Paquin '84

Once a day and sometimes more
You knock upon my daydreams door,
And I say fondly with a smile
Come, sit down, we'll chat awhile.
We'll share some joy or maybe a tear,
and memories of yesteryear.
But when my thoughts are pulled away,
by chores that must be done today.
I'll say farewell for now, my friend,
Until in dreams you come again.

I'll miss our private conversations
Quiet thoughts and inspirations,
All the times we laughed and cried,
All the warmth we felt inside.
Farewell until we meet again.
Goodbye, my friend — Goodbye 'til then.
It may be soon, it may be late,
For no one knows how long we wait.
Let's keep in touch in our own way.
Let's share our dreams another day.
Goodbye my friend — Goodbye 'til then.
Farewell until we meet again.

Junior Prom

Special Times, Everlasting Memories

An unforgettable night for prom-goers of the Junior Class began at 7:00 p.m. on April 19, 1984 at the Kirkbrae Country Club in Lincoln, Rhode Island.

As guests arrived they had their pictures taken by photographers from Hargreaves Studio. After taking some time to greet one another, couples sat down to a dinner of stuffed chicken or roast beef. Following dinner the queen and her court were announced.

An evening of fun and dancing began after the Queen, Stephanie Arns, and her court danced to the theme song, "Straight From the Heart." UVL provided the music for an evening the Class of '85 will never forget. ♀

The Class of 1985 was advised this year by Mr. David Vito and Miss Sue Robinson.

The year's activities included a Halloween Dance on October 28th, two car washes, and the Annual Powderpuff Game which was enthusiastically supported. The "Big Red Locomotive", the junior class float entry, won first place in the Homecoming float competition.

The class sold candy at home basketball games and added $800 to its treasury.

The Junior Prom was held on April 19th at the Kirkbrae Country Club in Lincoln, R.I. Music was supplied by UVL and the theme song was "Straight From the Heart".

Junior Class representatives on the Student Council were: Jill Gaudette, John Croteau, Bruce Hall, Joe DiRenzo, and Brian Lithway.

Football

An outstanding season for The Rocketeers

Led by Coach Ray Beaupre, the 1983 football team had a very successful 8-2 season. The offense scored 201 points while the defense allowed only 86 points.

The season ended on a record setting note as the Rocketeers blasted Attleboro 33-0 in the annual Thanksgiving Day game. No North team has ever done so well on Thanksgiving Day. Jim Johnson led the offense and was awarded the prestigious Offensive Balfour Trophy. While Jim excelled on offense, Peter Inglesse excelled on defense. For his efforts he was awarded the Defensive Balfour Trophy.

All-Hockomock honors were awarded to Jim Johnson, Frank Strachan, Kevin Griswold and John Bedard. All-Division Three honors were won by Griswold, Bedard and Johnson. The Sun Chronicle named Kurt Kummer, Jim Johnson and Kevin Griswold to their All-Star Team. Jim Johnson was also named to The Boston Globe All-Scholastic Football Team.

Cross Country

Running straight to the top

The 1983 Boys' Cross Country team had an excellent season this year. With a record of 7-1, they earned a share of the league title and placed third in the league meet.

With co-captains Dave Larson and Brian Bannon forming bookends around juniors Brendan Bannon, Greg MacKinnon, Mike Violet, and freshman Craig Peppi, they had six strong runners.

The Girls' Cross Country team dominated the league with an 8-0 record winning the title and league meet. Seniors Kelly Hainey and Andrea Pettengill provided the experience and depth, while freshmen Karen and Kristen Violet gave them strong running.

With only six seniors between both the girls' and boys' teams Coach Ayotte expects a very bright future. ♣

Field Hockey

Seniors head team

In one of its most productive seasons in years, the Field Hockey team placed sixth in the Hockomock League. Coached by Marcia Connors the girls battled to a greatly improved record of 4 wins, 8 losses and 4 ties.

Laura Brunell and Kris Ziergiebel ably co-captained the team, along with experienced seniors who contributed to the leadership qualities necessary to grow from and improve on past performances.

Offensively, Laura Brunell led the team in scoring and was honored by being named to the Hockomock League All-star Team. Defensively, junior Liz McNeilly had a fine season as goalie with 5 shut outs and more than 70 saves. Liz gave up only 8 goals and was named The Boston Globe all-scholastic goalie. All four wins came with Liz in goal. Unfortunately, she missed the last five games of the season.

Soccer

Good season gets the ball rolling!

This year's soccer team had their best winning percentage ever with a 6-5-2 record. Under the leadership of Coach Mike Suffoletto, and captains Matt Albertini and Mike Shepard along with seven other seniors, North came out of summer camp ready for a challenging season in a well rounded league.

North's defense, the strength of the team, was led by goalie Ron Gayton, sweeperback Dave Lanci, and stopperback Kirk Murphy, all seniors. The offense had high hopes until Matt Albertini suffered a broken leg. The loss of Albertini was tough to overcome since except for him, senior halfback Mike Shepard and junior Mark Shepard, the rest of the offensive team was relatively inexperienced. The rest of the offensive team was made up of first and second year players and this lack of experience was a factor in North's lack of scoring punch.

For their excellent seasons, both Mike

Shepard and Kirk Murphy were elected to the Hockomock All Star team and were chosen as their team's Most Valuable Players. Both also won spots on the Pawtucket Times All Star Team where they were joined by teammates Dave Lanci, Mark Shepard, and Ron Gayton, who was awarded for having the best goals against average in the area. ♯

Golf

North hits the green

The North Attleboro Golf team was extremely competitive for the second straight season and just barely missed qualifying for the State Team Tournament. North finished fourth in a well balanced league with a 9-6-1 record.

Senior captain John Delbonis, juniors Eric

Boronski and Kyle Harding played well throughout the season and carried North to a winning record.

A season of growth

The North Attleboro girls' basketball team ended their season with a 3-16 record. They were coached by Rick Smith and captained by Margaret Connolly.

Margaret was second leading scorer in the Hockomock League, was named to the Sun Chronicle All-Star team, participated in the league All-Star game, and was voted most valuable player by her teammates. Margaret was joined in the league all-star game by teammates Marcy Falcone and Tara Reece. Tara was also named to the All Hockomock Team.

North was forced to mature quickly this season since many young players were drafted to the varsity team. The team will be captained next year by Tara Reece and since a number of experienced players will be returning Coach Smith looks forward to a successful season. ♡

Boys' Basketball

A winning season for North

In the 1984 season North's Basketball team missed qualifying for the State Tournament by two games with a 12-8 record. The Rocketeers started the season auspiciously with five straight victories. Then illness and injury took its toll on the team. Sophomore Mike Reynolds did a great fill in job in his first year on the varsity team.

North won its own Holiday Tournament for the first time in history with senior Frank Strachan being named the tournament's Most Valuable Player. Captain Todd Croteau was named to the All-Tournament team.

Seniors playing in their final game at home helped defeat arch rival Bishop Feehan to end the season on a high note. They were: Todd Croteau, Jim Johnson, Frank Strachan, Kurt Kummer, Kevin Tremblay, Tim Lamar, John Delbonis, and Tom Yankee.

The Round Ball Association gave Jim Johnson the Alexander Ward Award.

Teammates voted Todd Croteau the Most Valuable Player; Frank Strachan, Best Defensive Player; John Delbonis, Most Spirited; Mike Reynolds, Most Improved; and Tim Lamar, the Unsung Hero Award.

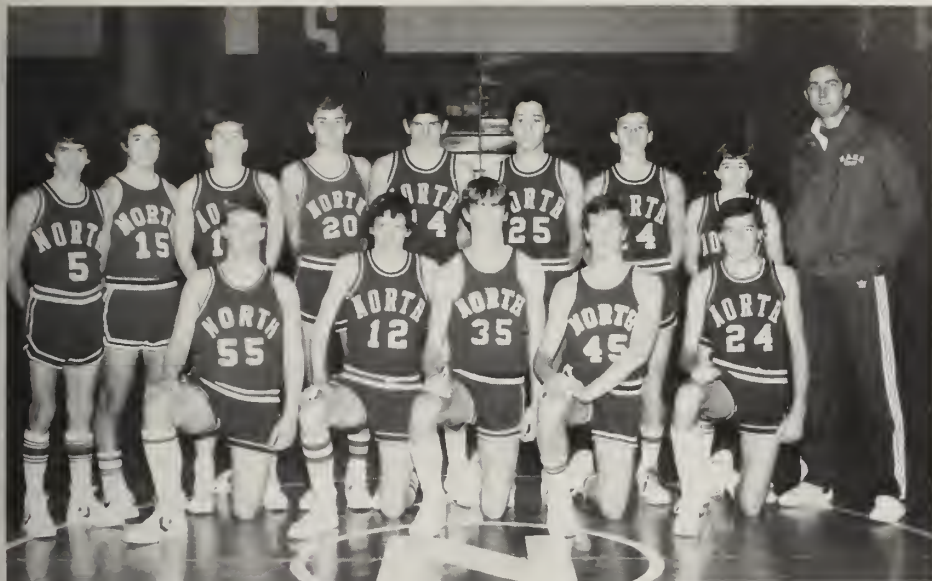

For their outstanding efforts Frank Strachan and Todd Croteau were named to the Sun Chronicle All Star Team with Croteau also being named to the All Hockomock Team.

Despite the loss of eight seniors Coach Schmidt looks forward to a promising year because of the number of experienced juniors and sophomores who will be returning.

Hockey

A comeback season for North

The North Attleboro Varsity Hockey Team, with only three seniors, competed in a very tough Hockomock League, which boasts of such teams as Canton and Franklin. Lacking depth and playing most games with only two lines, the undermanned team was not expected to win a game.

In the first game against Stoughton North lost 11-0. As the year went on the season became very dismal after losing all of the games in the first round. Stoughton skated on the ice against North for the second time, fully expecting to demolish them again, but North upset Stoughton. During the last half of the season North beat Oliver Ames, and Stoughton for the second time.

North Attleboro ended the season with three wins and two ties in twenty games. The team was led by the high scoring junior, Mike Harris, and senior captain, Ron Gayton. ♡

Gymnastics

North wins five

The 1983-84 Gymnastics team, captained by Beth McCann and Bonnie Wheeler, finished the season with 5 wins and 5 losses. Sophomore Melissa Golembewski and freshman Amy Legendre were the team's highest point winners.

The Rocketeers did well in the Hockomock League Individual Meet. A Rocketeer won a place in each event. Sherri Gordon placed sixth on the floor exercises. Bonnie Wheeler placed fifth and Kathy Clinton placed sixth on the balance beam. Beth McCann placed fourth and Lisa McAvoy placed fifth on the vault.

In the all-around events Melissa Golembewski placed fourth on the uneven parallel bars. She placed sixth in all-around competition. Amy Legendre placed third on the vault and was fourth in all-around competition.

Team awards went to Amy, voted most contributing, and to Melissa for most points earned. Lori Karpinski was voted most improved.

Best season in ten years

The 1984 Softball team posted its best record in 10 years with 12 wins and 7 losses. The captains for this year were Cheryl Grant and Laura Brunell. North led the league for most of the season, not giving up first place until next to the last game. NAHS missed qualifying for the state tourney by one-half game.

North Attleboro led the league with 3 players on the All-Hockomock team: left fielder Cheryl Grant, shortstop Margaret Connolly and second baseman Jean Doran. The team was captained by all three. Cheryl and Jean also shared the Hockomock batting crown. Both finished the season with a .604 average. Jean was selected for The Boston Globe second team, and Cheryl Grant became the first North player to be named to The Boston Globe All-Scholastic Team.

Under the direction of Coaches Steve Robertson and Dwight Estey, the Girls' Track team completed its most successful season ever.

Captains Andrea Pettengill and Sue Burns lead the team to another Hockomock championship, their fifth in the last six years. They have an overall record of 58-3-1 in that time period.

North had four qualifiers to the New England Track and Field Championships. Melody Johnson was entered in the 4x100 meter relay, 100 meter run, and shotput event. Kelly Magnan was entered in the 4x100 meter relay and the discus. Debbie Schromm and Karen Pearce participated in the 4x100 relay also. The team placed second in that competition.

In addition the team broke twelve school records and placed second in the State Class Meet, the State Relays, and the South Shore Track Meet.

The power of the team is evidenced by the fact that eight team members were elected to the All-Hockomock Team and the team's average win margin was 47 points. Those elected to the Hockomock Team were: Debbie Schromm, Karen Pearce, Kelly Magnan, Melody Johnson, Melissa Golembewski, Beth McCann, Amy Caldwell, and Tara Reece.

With the loss of just five letter seniors and the return of most of the top scorers, the team is expected to continue its success under the leadership of captains Beth Hanley, Lori Karpinski, and Debbie Schromm. ♡

Girls' team shows strength

The Girls' Tennis team, coached by Marcia Connors and captained by Debbie Gaudette and Sharon France, won their first matches in three years. Showing strong improvement were Sue Joy, at first singles, and Derri Everton, at third singles. Sue Joy's record of 10-6 won her a position on the Hockomock League All-Star Team. Derri Everton, at 11-5, won the most points for the team. The girls ended the season with a 7-9 overall record. Many of the matches lost were by a 2-3 score. Next year should see the girls vying for a place in the Sectional Championships. Sue Joy will captain the team next year.

The Boys' Tennis team, coached by John Wood, and captained by Ronald Llacuna, was not as successful this year as in the past. Due to a loss of seniors the young team lacked experience but showed great improvement as the season went on. Jeff Redding was elected captain for next year.

Cheerleading

Give a cheer for North Pride

The cheerleading squads all had a great time cheering for their teams this year. The football, basketball and soccer squads were chosen in April, and the girls spent the summer practicing and getting ready for the upcoming seasons.

Both the football and soccer squads attended summer camps. For placing first at their camp, the football squad was invited to the Nationals in Lansing, Michigan during late August. Money was raised and the trip took place. It was a super way to kick off the season.

Mrs. Jeannette Battista was the advisor for the football squad for her eighth year. Newcomers Betsy Croteau and Maureen Clancy coached the soccer and basketball squads, respectively. Beth McCann captained the football and competition squads. Tricia Scarlatelli led the basketball squad, and Kris Brauner and Heidi Garito led the soccer girls.

The competition squad, coached by Mrs. Battista and Mrs. Croteau, continued to prove themselves as one of the best teams in the state. Starting off the season, the girls took first place at the first annual Hockomock League Cheerleading Competition. They took first place at Somerville, Agawam, Chicopee and David Prouty. They also won the Grand Champion Trophy in Agawam. Second place trophies were won at Smith Academy and Franklin High. The girls worked hard, and it was all worth it! ♀

Fisher-Kelley Banquet

Athletes of the class of 1984 were honored at the sixty-third annual Fisher-Kelley Banquet on May 22, 1984. Besides the seniors being honored, parents, administrators, coaches, faculty members and special guests gathered at the Elk's Home in North Attleboro for dinner and the presentation of awards and plaques. The guest speaker was Neal Poirier, a 1962 North High graduate and the holder of thirteen varsity letters.

The most prestigious award, the Dr. Maurice L. Grant Award, was presented to senior Steve Gaumond. This award is given to a senior athlete of high scholastic achievement. The Thomas Bury Football Award went to Frank Strachan.

on the rise!

"On the Rise"

On August 1, 1983, while other students were still enjoying summer vacation, the staff of the 1984 Northern Light met to begin to organize itself for another year of hard work. By the end of that meeting the editorial staff had been organized. Headed by Co-Editors Nancy Fallocco and Maureen Bucklin the editorial staff included seniors Diane Cotter and Thom Freeman, juniors Sakina Samma, Kim Lennox, and Derri Everton, sophomores David Lagasse, Heidi Hill and Lauren Mandell.

Early in September the staff began to meet weekly on Thursday afternoons. After many hours of brainstorming, the theme of "On the Rise" was chosen for the 1984 Northern Light. Once the theme was chosen, each editor was assigned a staff and the pages started rolling.

Through the hard work and dedication of the staff, the advisors, Jean Giarrusso and Jane Gallotta, and Josten's yearbook representative, Dan Smith, this yearbook was produced.

Art Club

Big Apple highlights activities

The Art Club officers, Lee-Ann Childs, president; Kevin Fuller, vice-president; Linda Duckworth, secretary; and Rhaina Paradis, treasurer; together with advisor, Miss Carolyn Wachta, planned a busy year. Beth McCann and Lynne Hussey served as public relations for the club.

The climax of the year for the Art Club members was their annual 2-day trip to New York City. It started out early . . . 6:15 A.M. from Triboro Plaza and continued by train into the "Big Apple". A subway ride brought us into Times Square and to our destination, the Milford Plaza Hotel. The afternoon was spent at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, viewing art and people. The evening brought us to the James Theatre where we saw the play "On Your Toes", a love story, ballet and comedy all rolled into one show.

We, again, enjoyed the company of the Drama Club members and shared with them a tour of Lincoln Center the following day.

The group had a fantastic time and began organizing for next year's events on the train ride home. We're hoping to conquer the bake sale syndrome with a parent's organization that could help significantly in fund raising activities.

A special thanks to Ann Rollins and Norman Grise, parents who helped chaperone the New York trip, and to Miss Wachta for advising another year. ♀

Awards Assembly

Recognizing achievement

On May 10th the annual Awards Assembly took place. Mr. Whitty and Honor Society president, Kathie Schaeberle, gave the opening remarks. Presenting the awards were Dr. Olivier for Humanities, Miss Cobb for Theatre Arts, Mrs. Thibault for Latin, Mr. Platt for Music, Mr. Slowe for Business and Occupational Education, and Mr. Flannery for Distributive Education.

Jeff Shaw and Kathie Schaeberle were named valedictorian and salutatorian respectively for the Class of 1984. Lynne Alix received both the Brown Book Award for excellence in English and the Renselaer Medal for excellence in Math and Science. The D.A.R. Good Citizen Award was presented to Kacy Achin. Thom Freeman was commended for being chosen as a Century III Leader Program winner.

Honor Society officers announced their new members at this time. Class presidents read the names of those students in their respective classes who had made highest honors for at least one term this year. Also commended were those students who were part of the 1984 Merit Scholarship program. ♀

Vindicates an earlier defeat from Foxboro

The 1983-84 College Bowl Team was a strong one! Chet Dobro, Charles McGill, Mike Violet, Steve Delfino, Thom Freeman and Lynne Alix had an impressive 3-1 record for the year.

Two home matches and two away matches made up the season. Middleboro was crushed in the first match, here at N.A.H.S., when our team beat them by over 250 points. Foxboro defeated us at Foxboro after North led by 100 points in the first half. The next match at Middleboro was another easy victory for the North Attleboro scholars, who coasted to a win of over 100 points.

The final match, according to some observers, was the most exciting ever played here at N.A.H.S. With one question to go and the score tied at 240 with arch rival Foxboro, Chuck McGill hit the button and answered "catharsis" to a question about classical drama. Our team subsequently answered the bonus question and vindicated its earlier defeat from a great Foxboro team.

Vin Baldasaro was coordinator and home master of ceremonies.

First Hand Experience

The Distributive Education Club at North High offers students the opportunity to get some first hand business experience. This year, under the direction of advisor, William Flannery DECA students ran Ralph's Corner Store and sold advertising contracts for the 1984 Northern Light.

On October 22nd, DECA students went to the State Leadership Conference at Mansfield High. On February 4th and 5th, twenty-six DECA students participated in district competitions with nine NAHS students qualifying for state competition. The nine qualifiers were Darlene Ashworth, Kim Hathaway, Todd Belham, Paul Henry, Dave Lanci, Tim Rioux, Joe Calligan, John Champagne, and Dave Sevigny.

DECA had two chapters this year. Officers of the Senior Blue Chapter were: Dave Lanci, president; Todd Belham, vice-president; Caroline Croke, secretary; Ricky Lewis, treasurer. Officers of the Senior Gold Chapter were: Robin Skawinski, president; Beth Nardelli, vice-president; Glenn Meyer, treasurer; Sonya Apt, secretary. ♀

Drama club

Students light up the stage

Miss Judith Cobb, drama club advisor, led the club through another successful year. Helping her were the club's officers: President, Debbie Arabian; Vice-president, Lauren Mandell; Secretary, Kurt Anderson; Treasurer, Lee-ann Childs (replacing John Stolworthy); and Scribe, Heidi Hill.

The Drama Club was soon busy working on their fall production of Thornton Wilder's "The Skin of Our Teeth". Under Miss Cobb's direction, a cast consisting of students, faculty, parents and alumni staged two successful performances on November 18 and 19. Outside participants were Marie and John Arabian, Mark and Pat Anderson, Doug Greene, Freda Dobro, Mark Holmes and Carina Harrison.

On February 4, 1984, three student directed one act plays were performed. "The Bald Soprano", directed by Kurt Anderson, "Loose Ends", directed by Chet Dobro, and "The Queen of France", co-directed by Jennifer Boltz and Stephen Fuller, were judged by members of the local art community. "The Bald Soprano" received the Best Play award; John Stolworthy was named Best Actor for his performance in "Loose Ends"; Lee-ann Childs was named Best Actress for her role in "The Bald Soprano"; and Stephen Fuller received the Best Technical award for outstanding technical achievement. Also awarded were three Distinguished Performance medals to Chet Dobro, Ric Golembewski and Lauren Mandell. The festival gained exposure through U.A. Columbia's broadcast of a documentary on "The Bald Soprano".

The spring musical production of "Bells are Ringing" was staged at N.A.H.S. on April 13 and 14. Debbie Arabian and Kurt Anderson led a cast which consisted of many seniors, all of whom were happy to end their high school drama careers on a high note.

In the fall, drama students took part in workshops at the New England Theatre conference, held at the Biltmore Plaza in Providence. The Drama Club made trips to Trinity Square theatre and joined the Art Club in April for a trip to New York City where they attended a Broadway show.

On June 8, 1984, the members of the International Thespian Society held their annual banquet, induction and awards ceremony. The inductees, who had accumulated at least on hundred hours of excellent theatrical work were Heidi Anderson, Jenny Boltz, Lea Deschenes, Ric Golembewski, Laurie Housman, Darrell Johnston and Brian Saulnier.

"Daddy's Little Girl"

On January 28, 1984, the Student Council held its 10th annual Father Daughter Dance, the theme being "Daddy's Little Girl".

Dinner was a hot and cold buffet, catered by Mother's, and rounded off by a delicious assortment of pastries for dessert.

Valente music provided a variety of tunes ranging from the favorites of the younger generation to the parents' favorite oldies.

Math League

Delfino gets perfect score

Once again this year NAHS students were given the opportunity to participate in the New England Math League. The League includes teams from 200 school systems which engage in monthly mathematical contests.

Each contest consists of six questions ranging in difficulty from Algebra to Pre-Calculus and lasts for 30 minutes. Each contest results in the selection of five team members whose scores are reported to the league for that month's competition.

According to advisor Mary Clark twenty-one students took part in one or more of the competitions. The top scorers for North were: junior Steve Delfino, who had a perfect score on one test, and seniors Chester Dobro and Jeff Shaw. ♪

Homecoming

Rocketeers blast Bombadiers

The annual Homecoming football game was held on Thanksgiving Day, November 20, 1983. Tracey Dean was elected Homecoming Queen while the court included seniors Kacy Achin, Sue Burns and Angie Colletto, juniors Stephanie Arns and Jill Gaudette, sophomores Chrissy Croteau and Kelly Magnum, and freshmen Holly Bishop and Kathy Phipps.

The activities which began with a parade from the Knights of Columbus Hall to the high school consisted of the marching band, cheerleaders, and class floats. After careful thought, the judges awarded first place to the juniors. Seniors placed second followed by sophomores and freshmen.

On the field the Rocketeers were victorious over the Attleboro Bombadiers with a 33-6 win. The activities of the day provided a memorable time for both spectators and participants. ?

Honor Society 30th Anniversary year

This year's National Honor Society enjoyed many activities. A canned food drive began the year, and tutoring undergraduates became an ongoing activity. Although the ski trip was cancelled, students kept busy serving as guides for parents' night, hosting the annual awards ceremony and planning the annual Spring induction banquet.

Several members, along with advisor Carol Duhamel, attended the leadership convention of Southeastern Massachusetts National Honor Society for the first time. It was held at Bentley College.

This year the revision of the society's National Constitution led to stricter induction regulations. However, North High still welcomed 14 seniors, 11 juniors and 7 sophomores as new members. They attended a breakfast hosted by the Chamber of Commerce on May 22nd.

This year was special because North High celebrated its 30th anniversary as a chapter of the National Honor Society. To mark this event two honorary memberships were given to Mrs. Martha Frutchev and Miss Elaine Bedard, who have contributed a total of 17 years of service to honor society.

Overall, the honor society had an enjoyable year and is looking forward to many more. ♀

Three silver medals awarded

The Latin Club at North High had another profitable year. Officers for 1983-84 were Steve Gaumond, President, Erin Cody, Vice-president/Secretary, and Lynne Alix, Treasurer.

The annual bake sale held in November was a success, and in February members viewed the classic movie, "Spartacus". North attended Junior Classics Day at Boston College on March 5. Students heard speakers and participated in seminars and contests.

Michael Saulnier placed second in the Latin III competition and Chester Dobro placed third for Latin IV. Also entered were Steve Delfino, Latin I, and Michelle Plante, Latin II. North once again competed in the National Latin Test. Three silver medals were awarded to Lori Chabot, Chester Dobro and Lynne Alix.

Another springtime activity was the viewing of The Last Days of Pompeii, a made-for-television novel, presented on national television and videotaped for the club. Overall, the Latin Club experienced another active and fun year. ♀

NAHS shows pride and determination

This year the Hockomock Model Senate was held on April 12 and 13 at Oliver Ames High School.

Joanne Barry chaired the Judiciary Committee. Tom Grant, Chuck Heap, David Lagasse, Thom Freeman, Mike Shepard and Joanne Barry all sponsored bills that passed committee.

Thom Freeman and Mike Shepard were able to debate their bill on the Senate floor on the second day. Their bill supported the legalization of marijuana. The bill caused a lot of heated debate and was defeated by a very slim margin.

Mr. Baldasaro, advisor to the group, thought this year's delegation did an outstanding job. This was especially true when it came to defeating a bill from Canton which supported the withdrawal of the United States from the United Nations. North is just too good to be beaten!

Delegates represent Japan

On December 12 Mr. Vincent Baldasaro accompanied thirteen members of his International Relations classes to the Boston Sheraton for the annual Harvard Model United Nations.

The North Attleboro delegation represented Japan this year and was fortunate enough to earn a position on the security council. Lynne Alix and Mike Violet received awards for their performance on this council.

The delegates learned a great deal about international diplomacy, but they still found time for fun. In all the conference seemed to be a success as everyone left with expanded knowledge and the memories of new found friendships. ♪

Newspaper

Keep your eye on the North Star

The "North Star" had a very successful second year. Still young and developing, the staff worked hard to integrate all facets of the school's activities and program. Different formats were tried and tested in order to find a working pattern for the paper. Some of these ideas included a series of student polls on punk music and soap operas, both which proved to be very popular.

Front page stories investigated the school's computer shortage, the lunch program, the junior prom and graduation. At Christmas over 120 personal ads were sold as a means to help support the paper. Personal interviews were conducted with Maria Horling, our visiting student from Sweden and Tracey Jewett, on her Olympic Torch run in Boston. "Random Sample" by Dr. Olivier was again a part of the paper with an interesting questionnaire that appeared in two consecutive issues, one for students, the other for parents.

On the technical side, a foundation was initiated for the photography staff by Miss Wachta. Lessons were conducted on taking pictures, developing and printing. Layout was completed by her commercial art students.

Miss Wachta advised for the second year and is already in preparation for 1984-85. Keep your eye on the "North Star". ♪

Student Advisory Committee

The members of the Student Advisory Committee for 1983-84 were Kris Brauner, Darlene Ashworth, Amy Caldwell and Nancy Falocco. The members attend school committee meetings and act as liaisons between the student body and the administration.

This year the committee arranged for the school bus drop-off system in the mornings to be done in a safer manner.

Amy Caldwell and Nancy Falocco were also on the Southeastern Massachusetts Regional SAC. They attended monthly conventions where they learned about the legalities of the student handbook.

Health Fair

North Attleboro High School held its first Health Fair on March 14. It was organized by health teacher, Dwight Estey.

Displays included North Attleboro fire fighters on safety and fire prevention, Big Brothers/Big Sisters of the Greater Attleboro Area, Alateen (Al-Anon), American Cancer Society, American Lung Association, Samaritan: Suicide Prevention Hotline and many others.

Due to the success of the event the Health Fair is expected to become an annual attraction. ♀

Serves School and Community

Under the direction of Mrs. Mary Clark and President Kris Brauner the Student Council completed a very successful year. Completing the slate of officers were: Jim Johnson, vice-president; Angie Colletto, secretary; Jill Gaudette, corresponding secretary; Frank Strachan, treasurer; John Croteau, sergeant-at-arms. Senior class representatives were Darlene Ashworth and Todd Croteau. The junior class was represented by Brian Lithway, Bruce Hall, and Joe DiRenzo. Chrissy Fowler, Chris Keyes, and Kathy Brunell represented the sophomores. Early in October the freshman class elected Kelly Achin, Sue Billingskoff and Kathie Phipps to the Council.

The year began with the Council sponsoring freshman orientation and many Homecoming and Thanksgiving activities. During the Christmas season, a "Santa Fund" collection was taken and a food drive, "Food for Friends", was held. In January the Council sponsored the biggest Father-Daughter Dance ever. Over one thousand carnations were sold in the annual Valentine's Day sale. A blood bank was hosted on March 7th followed by the annual St. Patrick's Day Dance. In April members acted as guides for junior high school students as they toured the high school.

When reviewing the service the Student Council provides, it becomes clear that it is one of North's most active organizations. Its advisor and current members are quite confident that it will continue to be active in serving the school. ♪

Music

New director, New Spirit

The North Attleboro High School Music Department welcomed a new band director, Mr. Alyn H. Platt, last fall. Under his direction the music department expanded into many new areas. Members of the music department participated in a wide variety of activities, including workshops by the Empire Brass Quintet, percussion ensembles and Boston Symphony Orchestra performances.

The officers of the NAHS Band for the 1983-84 year were Christopher Reil, President; Douglas Richards, Vice-president; Debbie Greene, Treasurer; and Lynne Alix, Secretary. Drum Major for the marching band was Jennifer Boltz.

Along with performing at all North Attleboro football games, the bands also performed a Winter concert, Christmas parade, Christmas caroling at nursing homes, pot-luck dinner/concert, St. Patrick's Day parade in South Boston, Spring concert, Memorial Day parade and North Attleboro High School commencement activities. The annual point-settia drive was also held which once again was profitable and fun.

North switched from New England competitions to Massachusetts competitions this year. The concert band competed at Fitchburg State College on April 8. North was proud to have seniors, Doug Richards and John Balut represent our town in the Lion's All-State Band on the Cape in May.

One of the highlights of the year was the annual awards banquet, at which Mr. George Parks, Director of the Marching Band at the University of Massachusetts, was guest speaker. Awards of appreciation were presented to all band members, with the John Philip Sousa Band Award going to John Balut.

on the rise!

We began in the Fall of 1980

FRESHMAN YEAR

We were all anxious to fit in and a little scared of the upperclassmen, but soon we all became comfortable. Our class advisors for our four years at North were Miss Cooke and Mr. Flannery. We elected Kacy Achin - President, Tracey Dean - Vice President, Amy Caldwell - Secretary, and Steve Gaumond - Treasurer. Elected to Student Council were Kris Brauner, Angie Colletto, and Bonnie Wheeler. As Freshmen, we began building our treasury with a bake sale in the fall. This was followed by a successful fund raiser. We raised over three thousand dollars by selling popcorn and spice containers! We also sponsored the St. Patricks Day Dance - another great success. We spent many hours organizing and building our float. It placed second in the annual float competition. Our theme was "Keep Mansfield Hornets in their Hive." Elected to ride on the float were Tracey Dean and Angie Colletto. As the end of our Freshman year approached, so did the Freshman/Sophomore Social. The theme was "The Best of Times" and, like our first year at North, the night passed quickly.

With a year of experience behind us, we began our Sophomore year under the leadership of Todd Croteau - President, Tracey Dean - Vice President, Darlene Ashworth - Secretary, and Kerri Silva - Treasurer. The position of Treasurer became vacant when Kerri transferred and Sue Burns was elected to take her place. Student Council reps were Jim Johnson, Bonnie Wheeler, and Angie Colletto. Our class activities included several summer car washes and the annual Freshman/Sophomore Social, which turned out to be a great success. This year, the many hours spent on the homecoming float paid off as we placed first in this competition and in the poster contests. Elected to ride on the float were Tracey Dean and Angie Colletto.

JUNIOR YEAR

Our next year began with many changes. Elected as the year's class officers were Kacy Achin - President, Tracey Dean - Vice President, Paul Whitney - Secretary, and Sue Burns - Treasurer. Student Council members were Jim Johnson, Frank Strachan, and Kris Brauner. Angie Colletto served as Corresponding Secretary. Junior year activities included two summer car washes and a successful Christmas Dance. We also held the concession stand at each home basketball game, raising money to add to our treasury.

In the fall, we participated in the annual Powderpuff Football Game. The Junior Jets beat the Senior Sharks for the first time in seven years, 14 - 6. Our homecoming float placed first again this year with the theme "Go For the Gold." Elected to ride on our rainbow float were Kacy Achin and Tracey Dean. We also placed first in this year's poster contest.

We raised a lot of money junior year. This helped with the expenses and planning for the most important event of the year, the Junior Prom. The Prom was held at the Kirkbrae Country Club in Lincoln, Rhode Island, on April 21. The theme song was "Just Between You & Me", and Tracey Dean was elected as Queen. The members of her Court were Kacy Achin, Sue Burns, Beth McCann, Beth Nardelli, and Bonnie Wheeler.

We ended our Junior year with the Junior Talent Show, held on Friday, May 13. The night was a great success. Miss Cooke and G. Frank Meekins codirected the sold-out performance, and Kevin Tremblay and Lee-Ann Childs served as emcees for the evening.

SENIOR YEAR

Our class officers elected this year were Kacy Achin - President,

Todd Vigorito - Vice President, Paul Whitney - Secretary, and Sue Burns - Treasurer. Kris Brauner was elected as Student Council President, while Jim Johnson served as Vice President, Frank Strachan was Treasurer, and Angie Colletto was Secretary. As Seniors we placed first in the poster contest and second in the float competition. Tracey Dean was chosen as Homecoming Queen and her Court members included Kacy Achin, Sue Burns, and Angie Colletto. We sponsored the Homecoming Dance, held on November 26, and also raised money by selling candy at every home football game. The Senior Prom was held on February 23 at the Biltmore Plaza in Providence, Rhode Island. The theme was "Through the Years", and the music was supplied by UVL. Tracey Dean was elected Prom Queen and her Court members were Kacy Achin, Darlene Ashworth, Maureen Bucklin, Sue Burns, Angie Colletto, and Tricia Scarlatelli. The night was a great success and was enjoyed by everyone.

All in all, it was a very successful and fun-filled four years at North Attleboro School. We would like to thank Miss Cooke and Mr. Flannery for all of their guidance and help over the past four years, and we would like to wish all of the underclassmen the best of luck in their future at North. ♀

The Class of '84 Rises to the Occasion

Senior Prom

On February 22nd, the Class of 1984 held its Senior Prom at the Biltmore Hotel in Providence, Rhode Island.

The theme for the evening was taken from Kenny Rogers' "Through The Years" and music was provided by UVL.

Following a reception and photographs, couples enjoyed chicken or roast beef dinners. After dinner Tracey Dean was crowned queen. Tracey and her court reigned over the festivities.

No doubt, the evening will be remembered ---through the years! ♀

Pizza party

On May 31, 1984, the class of '84 got together in the North Attleboro High School cafeteria for a pizza party. Seventy-five pizzas were consumed and eleven cases of soft drinks. As each person came in a raffle ticket was given out. The prizes were glasses left over from the Senior Prom, five sets of six glasses each. After finishing all the pizza, Milky Ways and Snicker Bars were handed out on a first come, first serve basis.

Unfortunately, Mother Nature and the weatherman did not cooperate, so that the faculty/student softball game could not be played. It was a complete washout!

A lot of talking and laughing made the party a success. Even Ray Croft, out of the hospital, but on crutches, made the party.

Reception

On May 30, 1984, seniors began saying goodbye as they attended the annual Senior Reception, sponsored by the Alumni Association and held at the King Philip Ballroom. Following a chicken dinner with all the fixings, a receiving line was formed by the seniors. Parents, faculty, and friends then had a chance to congratulate and enjoy a few words of "goodbye" with the graduates. Dancing was enjoyed throughout the rest of the evening, and a good time was had by all!

Class day

Friday, June 3, 1984, saw the seniors hold Formal Class Day for parents and friends in the high school gymnasium. Essays were read by Caroline Croke, "The Last Farewell", Sharon LaCroix, "The Closing Months", and Ronald Llacuna, "Key to Your Success". A vocal selection, "Theme from Mahogany", was sung by Debbie Arabian, Darlene Ashworth, Kurt Anderson and Barbara Culp. The Principal's Award was presented to four seniors who had been on the honor roll for all marking periods for four years. They were Michelle Blanchette, Jeff Shaw, Kathie Schaeberle and Nancy Falocco. Next was a new award, the Presidents' Academic Fitness Award, this being the pioneer year. Mr. Kenneth Pickering presented this to six deserving seniors: Michelle Blanchette, John Holden, Kathie Schaeberle, Jeff Shaw, Brian Bannon, and Mark Gallagher. Thom Freeman received the Century III Leader Award, and Kacy Achin was presented the Merle Crockett Award as the outstanding senior.

Maureen Buklin and Nancy Falocco, co-editors of the Northern Light, announced that this year's publication is dedicated to senior advisor, Miss Linda Cooke. Exchange student, Maria Horling, from Sweden, spoke briefly about her feelings and impressions of North Attleboro High School. Before the class ode was sung by Debbie Arabian, accompanied by Michelle Robidoux on the piano and John Balut playing a saxophone solo, a slide show was presented, highlighting the four years of the Class of 1984.

Following the Class Day activities a reception was held in the cafeteria.

Graduation

Sunday, June 3, 1984, broke sunny and warm after a week of rain, enabling the 253 North Attleboro High School seniors to graduate outside on the high school field.

Speeches were heard from Valedictorian, Jeffrey Shaw, entitled "The Key to a Better Tomorrow", and Salutatorian, Kathie Schaeberle, entitled "Graduate into Education".

The guest speaker, James S. Cook, President of the L.G. Balfour Company and a Brown University alumnus, commended the class on its eagerness and excitement in dealing with modern technology. However, he cautioned the graduates on the tremendous responsibility that the power of technology carries with it.

The highlight of the afternoon was the presentation of diplomas by the Chairman of the School Committee. Scholarships, amounting to $40,100, were given to deserving students. The Athletic Cups, awarded for excellence in sportsmanship, leadership, athletic skill and scholarship went to James Johnson and Margaret Connolly. Approximately sixty-four percent of the graduates are going on to higher education.

Four years of hard work and fun had come to an end, and a new beginning was just "around the corner".
